Civil Action No.:

COMPLAINT

Trial By Jury Demanded

----- -X

Plaintiffs Ferrero S.p.A. and Ferrero U.S.A., Inc. (collectively and individually, "Plaintiffs" or "Ferrero"), through their attorneys, complaining of defendants GCAS Group LLC, Andre Sheleg, and Gleb Chmerisov (collectively and individually, "Defendants" or "GCAS"), allege as follows:

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. This is an action for trademark infringement, unfair competition, and dilution, against GCAS's unlawful use of Ferrero's trademarks and service marks, or similar marks, in commerce in connection with GCAS's operating business name, the goods and services it provides under that name, and its advertisements and social media operations in conjunction with those goods and services.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338 and the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1121 et seq.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

2015 FEB -5 AM 9:55

FILED
CLERK

3. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the claims in this Complaint which arise under state statutory and common law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367, since the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

4. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c).

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiffs Ferrero S.p.A. and Ferrero U.S.A., Inc., each an affiliate of Ferrero International S.A., are sister companies.

6. Ferrero S.p.A., a corporation organized under the laws of Italy, has an office and principal place of business at Piazzale P. Ferrero 1, 12051 Alba (Cuneo), Italy.

7. Ferrero U.S.A., Inc. is a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, having an office and principal place of business at 600 Cottontail Lane, Somerset, New Jersey 08873.

8. Upon information and belief, GCAS is a domestic limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, having a principal place of business at 82 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11217.

9. Upon information and belief, Defendant Andre Sheleg ("Mr. Sheleg") is an individual who is a citizen of the United States of America and is domiciled in the State of New York with an address at 95 Titus Avenue, Staten Island, New York 10306.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant Gleb Chemerisov ("Mr. Chemerisov") is an individual who is a citizen of the United States of America and is domiciled in the State of New York with an address at 440 Neptune Avenue Apt 3E, Brooklyn, NY 11224.

11. Upon information and belief, Mr. Sheleg and Mr. Chemerisov are the sole owners of GCAS Group LLC.

12. Upon information and belief, Mr. Sheleg and Mr. Chemerisov have each engaged in the activities complained of in this Complaint; are the conscious, active and dominant forces behind GCAS Group LLC; GCAS Group LLC is the alter ego of Mr. Sheleg and Mr. Chemerisov; and that there exists a unity of interest and ownership among them.

FERRERO'S ACTIVITIES

13. Ferrero is part of the Ferrero Group of companies, one of the world's largest confectionery companies, which manufactures, advertises, distributes, offers for sale, and sells numerous food and confectionery products worldwide through its affiliates.

14. One of Ferrero's most famous products is its hazelnut and cocoa spread offered and sold under the trademark NUTELLA (the "NUTELLA Mark").

15. Ferrero offers for sale and sells products under the NUTELLA Mark using a distinctive and famous packaging mark (the "NUTELLA Jar"), a representative image of which is shown as:

16. Ferrero offers for sale and sells products under the NUTELLA Mark using a distinctive and famous stylized mark where some of the letters are in black color and the remaining letters are in red-orange color (the “NUTELLA Color Mark”, which is subsumed under the NUTELLA Mark), a representative image of which is shown as:

17. Ferrero advertises and markets products under the NUTELLA Mark using the domain name www.nutella.com and www.nutellausa.com, and is the owner of the “nutelleria.com” domain name (the “Nutelleria Domain Name”). The term “Nutelleria” translates to an establishment which specializes in Nutella brand spread, and indicates a connection, authorization, or endorsement by Ferrero. When consumers type the Nutelleria Domain Name into a web browser, they are automatically re-directed to Ferrero’s main website located at www.ferrero.com.

18. Ferrero is the owner of numerous trademark and service mark registrations in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for, inter alia, its NUTELLA Mark. Of particular relevance herein, Ferrero owns, inter alia, the following registrations: (i) U.S. Trademark Registration No. 4,192,415 for the NUTELLA Color Mark, with a lower case black “n” followed by red-orange lower case letters, issued on August 21, 2012, for, inter alia, services for providing food and drink in International Class 43; (ii) U.S. Trademark Registration No. 4,578,315 for “NUTELLA”, issued on August 5, 2014 for, inter alia, clothing in International Class 25; (iii) U.S. Trademark Registration No. 1,296,656 for “NUTELLA” in a design format, with a lower case black “n” followed by red-orange lower case letters, issued on September 18, 1984 for “cocoa and hazelnut spread” in International Class 30; and (iv) U.S. Trademark Registration No. 855,647 for “NUTELLA”, issued on August 27, 1968 for “spread containing cocoa and other ingredients” in International Class 29 (individually and collectively, the “NUTELLA Registrations”). Copies of the Certificates of Registration for the NUTELLA Registrations are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 1.

19. The NUTELLA Registrations are valid and subsisting, and have never been abandoned. Registration Nos. 1,296,656 and 855,647 are incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065.

20. The NUTELLA Mark (which includes the NUTELLA Color Mark) is inherently distinctive.

21. Ferrero has spent substantial sums of money advertising and marketing its goods and services under the NUTELLA Mark (which includes the NUTELLA Color Mark) and the NUTELLA Jar (collectively and individually, the “NUTELLA Intellectual Property”), and, as a result, has received significant positive press and attention from the trade, consumers, and the purchasing public. As such, the NUTELLA Intellectual Property has gained a secondary meaning as denoting products and services of excellent quality and value stemming from Ferrero, and the NUTELLA Intellectual Property has become a business asset of immense value to Ferrero.

22. By virtue of the wide renown acquired by the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, coupled with the extensive sale of various products distributed under this intellectual property, the NUTELLA Intellectual Property has become famous.

23. Ferrero has authorized and currently authorizes selected third parties to prominently use Ferrero’s NUTELLA products and to depict the NUTELLA Intellectual Property on authorized materials provided such third party agrees to certain conditions of use. Such use by selected third parties is carefully controlled by Ferrero to foster and promote the exemplary goodwill in the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, and all use by such entities inures to the benefit of Ferrero.

Further, a bar dedicated to the NUTELLA product was opened by Ferrero and Eataly at EATALY outlets both in New York and Chicago. Representative photographs of the relevant location in New York City are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 2.

GCAS'S INFRINGING ACTIVITIES

24. Upon information and belief, GCAS operates a café (the "GCAS Café") at 82 5th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11217 (the "GCAS Café Location") which specializes in offering food and drinks which use Ferrero's NUTELLA brand hazelnut and cocoa spread as the most prominent ingredient.

25. Upon information and belief, GCAS owns the websites www.nutelleriany.com, www.nutelleriamia.com, and www.nutelleriala.com, and began advertising and marketing the GCAS Café under the service mark NUTELLERIA on the website. A true and correct copy of a webpage from www.nutelleriany.com is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 3.

26. Upon information and belief, GCAS began advertising and marketing the GCAS Café under the service mark NUTELLERIA on social media. Upon information and belief, GCAS owns or owned the following social media accounts: Nutelleria NY on Facebook (www.facebook.com/NutelleriaNYC); Nutelleria NYC on Twitter (twitter.com/NutelleriaNYC); and nutelleriany on Instagram (instagram.com/nutelleriany) (collectively and individually, the "Nutelleria Social Media Accounts"). True and correct copies of webpages from the Nutelleria Social Media Accounts are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 4.

27. Upon information and belief, GCAS began advertising and marketing the GCAS Café at the GCAS Café Location under the service mark NUTELLERIA. A true and correct copy of a photograph showing NUTELLERIA signage at the GCAS Café Location is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 5.

28. Upon information and belief, GCAS advertised and marketed the GCAS café with (i) the NUTELLERIA word mark; (ii) the NUTELLERIA mark in a design format with a lower case black “n” followed by lower case red-orange letters; and (iii) the design mark comprising a spoon and jar with a lower case black “n” and red-orange “u” on the jar (collectively and individually, the “NUTELLERIA Marks”). True and correct images of the NUTELLERIA Marks are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 6.

29. On September 13, 2014, Ferrero hand delivered a letter to GCAS advising that use of the service mark NUTELLERIA as the name of the GCAS Café would infringe and dilute Ferrero’s distinctive rights in the famous NUTELLA Mark, and requesting that GCAS not open the GCAS Café until Ferrero’s legitimate concerns had been addressed. A true and correct copy of the September 13, 2014 letter is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 7.

30. GCAS and its counsel have had several communication exchanges since September 13, 2014 with representatives and counsel from Ferrero.

31. Upon information and belief, at least as early as November 4, 2014, while counsel for Ferrero and counsel for GCAS were attempting to resolve this dispute, GCAS began use of the service mark NUTERIA as the name of the GCAS Café, without notifying Ferrero’s counsel until after such use had begun. A true and correct copy of a webpage from ny.eater.com on the opening of Nuteria is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 8.

32. Upon information and belief, GCAS advertises and markets the GCAS café with (i) the NUTERIA word mark; (ii) the design mark comprising a jar with NUTERIA on the jar; and (iii) the NUTERIA mark in a design format with a lower case red-orange “nu” followed by lower case black letters (collectively and individually, the “NUTERIA Marks”). True and correct images of the NUTERIA Marks are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 9.

33. Upon information belief, GCAS owns the website www.nuteriany.com, and advertises and markets the GCAS café under the NUTERIA Marks on the website. A true and correct copy of a webpage from www.nuteriany.com is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 10.

34. The www.nuteriany.com website makes prominent use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property to such an extent that it gives the false impression that it is owned and operated by Ferrero or otherwise authorized, licensed, connected to, or sponsored by Ferrero when it is not. A true and correct copy of a webpage from www.nuteriany.com is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 11.

35. Upon information and belief, GCAS advertises and markets the GCAS Café under the NUTERIA Marks on social media, including the following social media accounts which GCAS owns: Nuteria NY on Facebook (www.facebook.com/NuteriaNY); Nuteria NY on Twitter (twitter.com/nuteriany); and nuteriany on Instagram (instagram.com/nuteriany) (collectively and individually, the “Nuteria Social Media Accounts”). True and correct copies of representative webpages from the Nuteria Social Media Accounts are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 12.

36. Continuing from a time after November 4, 2014, GCAS continued to use the www.nutelleriany.com, www.nutelleriamia.com, and www.nutelleriala.com domain names to advertise and promote the GCAS Café, because when consumers type those domain names into a web browser, they are automatically re-directed to www.nuteriany.com. A true and correct copy of the code showing the re-direct from www.nutelleriany.com to www.nuteriany.com is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 13.

37. Continuing from a time after November 4, 2014, GCAS continued to use the NUTELLERIA Marks on its website and social media platforms. True and correct copies of representative advertising using the NUTELLERIA Marks after November 4, 2014 are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 14.

38. Upon information and belief, as a direct result of GCAS's actions, the term NUTELLERIA functions as a mark to direct traffic to the GCAS Café. A true and correct copy of the search results for "Nutelleria" using the Google search engine, which displays a map showing the GCAS Café Location and a link to www.nuteria.com, is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 15.

39. Upon information and belief, GCAS's use of Ferrero's products and the NUTELLA Intellectual Property on its websites and social media platforms is beyond what is necessary to accurately represent and describe that GCAS uses Ferrero's products in the GCAS Café, and, instead, gives the false impression that the GCAS Café is owned and operated by Ferrero or otherwise authorized, licensed, connected to, or sponsored by Ferrero when it is not.

40. Upon information and belief, GCAS uses the stylized-font NUTERIA Mark on point of sale promotional materials that are provided or displayed at the GCAS Café when customers purchase food and drinks. A true and correct image from yelp.com of a representative GCAS Café point of sale promotional material with the NUTERIA Mark is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 16.

41. Upon information and belief, GCAS visually displays the mark NUTERIA with the "NU" portion in a different visual presentation than the "TERIA" portion, which educates and dictates that the pronunciation of the prefix "NU" portion is identical to the beginning sound of NUTELLA.

42. Upon information and belief, GCAS offers for sale and sells Nuteria t-shirts. A true and correct copy of a webpage from www.nuteriany.com explaining where to buy the Nuteria t-shirts is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 17.

43. Upon information and belief, the interior of the GCAS Café prominently displays jars of Ferrero's NUTELLA brand hazelnut and cocoa spread, including within a lighted display case at the front of the store. The jars are displayed for the purpose of creating an impression of a connection between the GCAS Café and Ferrero or the NUTELLA Intellectual Property. A true and correct image of the interior of the GCAS Café is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 18.

44. Upon information and belief, the interior of the GCAS Café has a poster featuring the NUTELLA Intellectual Property for the purpose of creating an impression of a connection between the GCAS Café and Ferrero or the NUTELLA Intellectual Property. A true and correct image of the Nutella poster inside the GCAS Café is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 19.

45. Upon information and belief, the interior of the GCAS Café has a poster of the Mona Lisa featuring the NUTELLA Intellectual Property for the purpose of creating an impression of a connection between the GCAS Café and Ferrero or the NUTELLA Intellectual Property. A true and correct image of the Mona Lisa poster inside the GCAS Café is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 20.

46. Upon information and belief, GCAS offers for sale and sells expensive, Italian specialty jars of Ferrero's NUTELLA brand hazelnut and cocoa spread on the GCAS online store at <https://squareup.com/market/NuteriaNY> for the purpose of creating an impression of a direct connection between the GCAS Café and Ferrero or the NUTELLA Intellectual Property. A true and correct copy of a webpage from <https://squareup.com/market/NuteriaNY> showing the products for sale by GCAS is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 21.

47. Upon information and belief, GCAS uses cocoa confection products manufactured by third parties as ingredients in food products offered for sale and sold inside the GCAS Café. Specifically, upon information and belief, GCAS uses cocoa powder manufactured by Ferrero's competitor Hershey Chocolate & Confectionery Corporation. When consumers purchasing GCAS's products at the GCAS Café taste products made with Hershey brand cocoa, they will mistakenly believe that such product is a NUTELLA brand product, or is otherwise authorized or approved by Ferrero, when it is not. Such use will deceive customers as to the quality of Ferrero's products and services, and will prevent Ferrero from controlling the nature and quality of confections which are attributed to, or associated with, Ferrero. A true and correct image of a Hershey's Cocoa container inside the GCAS Café is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 22.

48. Upon information and belief, GCAS is operating in the State of New York, including in this judicial district.

49. Ferrero has not authorized or consented to GCAS's use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

50. The use by GCAS of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar use, without Ferrero's consent, is likely to cause confusion and mistake in the minds of the purchasing public and, in particular, tends to and does falsely create the impression that the GCAS Café is owned and operated by Ferrero or otherwise authorized, licensed, connected to, or sponsored by Ferrero when it is not.

51. Upon information and belief, the activities of GCAS complained of herein constitute willful and intentional infringement of Ferrero's rights, and were commenced and have continued in spite of GCAS's knowledge that the use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar use, is in direct contravention of Ferrero's rights.

COUNT I
TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT
15 U.S.C. § 1114

52. Ferrero repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 51.

53. GCAS's acts have caused or are likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source of origin, sponsorship, or approval of the goods and services offered by and sold by GCAS in that purchasers and others are likely to believe that Ferrero authorizes and controls the GCAS Café or that the GCAS Café is associated with, related to, or is authorized or sponsored by Ferrero, when they are not.

54. On information and belief, GCAS's acts have injured or are likely to injure Ferrero's image and reputation with the purchasing public by creating confusion about, and dissatisfaction with, Ferrero and the goods and services offered and sold.

55. On information and belief, GCAS's advertising, marketing, offering, and sale of goods and services under the marks in the NUTELLA Registrations, or confusingly similar marks, is a deliberate, intentional, and willful attempt to confuse or deceive purchasers.

56. GCAS's acts constitute infringement of the marks in the NUTELLA Registrations in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

57. GCAS's acts irreparably damage Ferrero and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to irreparably damage Ferrero. Ferrero has no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs and injuries. Therefore, Ferrero is entitled to, among other things, an order enjoining and restraining GCAS from infringing the marks in the NUTELLA Registrations.

58. The aforesaid and continuing acts of GCAS infringe the marks in the NUTELLA Registrations in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114. Said continuing violation is causing and, unless enjoined, will continue to cause irreparable harm and damage to Ferrero and its business, reputation, and goodwill and has caused Ferrero to suffer monetary damages and GCAS to obtain ill-gotten gains in an amount that has yet to be determined.

COUNT II
FALSE DESIGNATIONS OF ORIGIN,
FALSE DESCRIPTIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS OF FACT
15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

59. Ferrero repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 51 and 53 through 56.

60. GCAS has, in connection with the GCAS Café, used in commerce, and continues to use in commerce, the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or confusingly similar marks. Such use tends to falsely describe sponsorship, association, or approval by Ferrero of the GCAS Café and the activities of GCAS.

61. Upon information and belief, GCAS has falsely implied that it is licensee of Ferrero.

62. GCAS's use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or confusingly similar marks, in the advertising, marketing, offering, and sale of its goods and services constitutes the use in commerce of false descriptions and representations of fact tending to falsely describe or represent GCAS and the GCAS Café as being authorized, sponsored, affiliated, or associated with Ferrero, when they are not.

63. GCAS's acts constitute the use in commerce of false designations of origin and false or misleading descriptions or representations of fact, tending to falsely or misleadingly describe or represent its goods and services as those of Ferrero, which is in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

64. GCAS's acts irreparably damage Ferrero and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to irreparably damage Ferrero. Ferrero has no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs and injuries. Therefore, Ferrero is entitled to, among other things, an order enjoining and restraining GCAS from infringing the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

65. The aforesaid and continuing acts of GCAS infringe the NUTELLA Intellectual Property in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Said continuing violation is causing and, unless enjoined, will continue to cause irreparable harm and damage to Ferrero and its business, reputation, and goodwill and has caused Ferrero to suffer monetary damages and GCAS to obtain ill-gotten gains in an amount that has yet to be determined.

COUNT III
FEDERAL TRADEMARK DILUTION
15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

66. Ferrero incorporates and realleges all of the allegations in Paragraphs 1 through 51, 53 through 56, and 60 through 63.

67. GCAS's activities in the advertising, marketing, and sale of its goods and services constitutes dilution of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

68. The NUTELLA Intellectual Property has been used for many years and is recognized and associated with Ferrero. The NUTELLA Intellectual Property is famous under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

69. The NUTELLA Intellectual Property is famous, as well as indicative of Ferrero's reputation for high quality and excellent customer service. The purchasing public is likely to attribute GCAS's use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar marks, as indicative of GCAS having authorization or sponsorship for its operating business name, the goods and services it provides under that name, and its advertisements and social media operations in conjunction with those goods and services. Further, the public is likely to purchase the goods and services GCAS offers for sale in the erroneous belief that GCAS is associated with, sponsored by, or affiliated with Ferrero.

70. Ferrero has not authorized or licensed the use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property to GCAS.

71. GCAS's unauthorized use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar marks, in its advertising, marketing, and sale of goods and services is diluting the distinctive quality of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property and the goodwill associated with them in violation of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

72. Upon information and belief, GCAS is intentionally and willfully utilizing the NUTELLA Intellectual Property and similar marks and is trading on Ferrero's reputation and goodwill.

73. GCAS's acts irreparably damage Ferrero and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to irreparably damage Ferrero. Ferrero has no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs and injuries. Therefore, Ferrero is entitled to, among other things, an order enjoining and restraining GCAS from infringing the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

74. The aforesaid and continuing acts of GCAS infringe the NUTELLA Intellectual Property in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c). Said continuing violation is causing and, unless enjoined, will continue to cause irreparable harm and damage to Ferrero and its business, reputation, and goodwill and has caused Ferrero to suffer monetary damages in an amount that has yet to be determined.

75. Ferrero is entitled to recover all damages sustained as a result of GCAS's unlawful and willful conduct, including GCAS's profits, and Ferrero's damages.

COUNT IV
ANTI-DILUTION AND UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES
NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW § 360-1

76. Ferrero repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 51, 53 through 56, 60 through 63, and 67 through 72.

77. Ferrero, on behalf of itself and the general public, seeks recovery from GCAS for violation of New York General Business Law § 360-1, et seq.

78. GCAS's unauthorized use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar marks, in its advertising, marketing, and sale of goods and services is diluting the distinctive quality of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property and the goodwill associated therewith.

79. By virtue of GCAS's unauthorized use and promotion of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, or similar marks, such use trading on the goodwill associated with Ferrero and made for purposes of influencing consumers, GCAS has misled and will continue to mislead the public into assuming a connection between Ferrero and the GCAS Café.

80. By falsely suggesting a connection with or sponsorship by Ferrero, GCAS is likely to cause public confusion constituting unfair competition within the meaning of New York Business Law § 360-1.

81. GCAS's acts irreparably damage Ferrero and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to irreparably damage Ferrero. Ferrero has no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs and injuries. Therefore, Ferrero is entitled to, among other things, an order enjoining and restraining GCAS from infringing the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

COUNT V
UNFAIR COMPETITION
NEW YORK COMMON LAW

82. Ferrero repeats and realleges the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 51, 53 through 56, 60 through 63, 67 through 72, and 77 through 80.

83. This claim arises under the common law of the State of New York relating to trademark infringement and unfair competition.

84. As more fully set forth above, the NUTELLA Intellectual Property has gained a secondary meaning as denoting products and services of excellent quality and value stemming from Ferrero.

85. As a result of GCAS's use of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property, the trade, consumers, and purchasing public is likely to believe erroneously that the GCAS Café is owned and operated by Ferrero or otherwise authorized, licensed, connected to, or sponsored by Ferrero.

86. On information and belief, GCAS has intentionally appropriated the NUTELLA Intellectual Property with the intent of causing confusion, mistake, and deception as to GCAS's relationship with Ferrero, and, as such, GCAS has committed trademark infringement and unfair competition under the common law of this State.

87. GCAS's acts irreparably damage Ferrero and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to irreparably damage Ferrero. Ferrero has no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs and injuries. Therefore, Ferrero is entitled to, among other things, an order enjoining and restraining GCAS from infringing the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

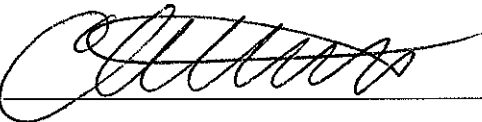

WHEREFORE, Ferrero demands judgment against GCAS as follows:

- I. That a permanent injunction be issued enjoining and restraining GCAS Group LLC, Andre Sheleg, and Gleb Chemerisov and their officers, agents, servants, employees and attorneys and all those in active concert or participation with them from the advertising, marketing, offering and sale of goods and services under the NUTELLERIA Marks, the NUTERIA Marks, any components and elements of them, any similar marks or business names, and/or any other marks or business names which infringe the NUTELLA Intellectual Property.
- II. Requiring GCAS to pay to Ferrero such actual damages as Ferrero has sustained in consequence of the acts of infringement, unfair competition, and dilution by GCAS complained of herein, and that any such monetary award be enhanced up to three times pursuant to the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
- III. Requiring GCAS to account to Ferrero for all profits resulting from GCAS's infringing activities and that such award of profits to Ferrero be increased by the Court as provided for under 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
- IV. Requiring GCAS to pay to Ferrero such damages as Ferrero has sustained as a consequence of GCAS's willful dilution of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property and to account for all gains, profits, and advantages derived by GCAS for its willful dilution of the NUTELLA Intellectual Property through the operation and advertising of the GCAS Café pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1125(c) and 1117(a) and that the award to Ferrero be trebled as provided for under 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
- V. Requiring GCAS to pay to Ferrero such damages as Ferrero has sustained and profits GCAS has realized as a consequence of GCAS engaging in unfair competition and trademark infringement to the fullest extent allowed by state and common law.

- VI. Ordering that Ferrero recover the costs of this action together with reasonable attorneys' and investigators' fees in this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a) and the laws of the State of New York.
- VII. Awarding to Ferrero such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper, together with the costs and disbursements which Ferrero has incurred in connection with this action.

Re: Ferrero U.S.A. Inc./Nutelleria NY
Our File: 34008/0021

Dear Mr. Sheleg and Mr. C_____:

We represent Ferrero S.P.A. and its exclusive United States distributor Ferrero U.S.A. Inc. (collectively, "Ferrero"). Ferrero is the owner in the United States and internationally of the world famous hazelnut spread known as Nutella, always used in a form with a lower case black "n" followed by red lower case letters, as:

It has recently come to our attention that you have erected signage at 82 5th Avenue in Park Slope, Brooklyn showing the name "nutelleria," shown below as:

GCAS Group LLC dba Nutelleria

September 13, 2014

We have also reviewed your web site at www.nutelleriany.com, which indicates that your business will be a restaurant or café which primarily sells products made with Ferrero's Nutella hazelnut spread.

These materials indicate that you are fans of Ferrero's Nutella product -- in fact, so are we. However, these materials also give the impression that your café is associated with or endorsed by Ferrero, when it is not. It appears that many elements of these materials give this impression of an association with Ferrero -- first among them is that you merely added the suffix "-eria" in place of the last letter of Nutella (when it is well-understood that the suffix "-eria" indicates a place of the word that it follows, e.g., pizzeria); you use words, including "nutella," on products and in advertisements in all lower case letters, with identical font, and with the first letter in black and the rest in red; and your website shows jar after jar of authentic Nutella products. In short, your actions make it look like your café is a Ferrero café.

As we are sure you can appreciate, the NUTELLA trademark is among Ferrero's most important assets. United States trademark law requires Ferrero to take affirmative steps to make sure that third parties do not confuse the public into believing that such use is authorized or sponsored by the trademark owner, when it is not.

We learned from your Twitter feed yesterday morning, September 12, 2014, that for the first time you announced that you planned on opening your café today, September 13. We immediately sent one of our lawyers early yesterday afternoon to your location, but no one was there. We had hoped to inform you of Ferrero's rights and that your activities infringe those rights, and -- most importantly -- to ask you not to open your café until a dialog has begun and Ferrero's legitimate concerns are addressed. Please understand that Ferrero applauds its fans, and we are certain that there is an appropriate way for your café to use Ferrero's product without infringing Ferrero's rights.

Unfortunately, because no one was there yesterday for us to speak with, we have no choice but to hand-deliver this letter and demand that you not open to the public today, the planned day of your café's opening.

Nothing in this letter is intended to waive any of Ferrero's rights, all of which are expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

AMSTER, ROTHSTEIN & EBENSTEIN LLP

Nutelleria Finally Opens in Park Slope, After Wisely Changing Name to Nuteria

The "Nutella enthusiasts" behind this unofficial Nutella emporium finally came to their senses and changed the name to something they can't get sued over.

Remember Nutelleria, the unofficial house of Nutella in the works in Park Slope? It finally opened over the weekend. The "Nutella enthusiasts" behind it had originally promised to start selling all manner of things covered in chocolate hazelnut spread back in September, but at the very last minute (hours before it was supposed to open) the team backed out. They claimed that the chef needed "a little more time to perfect the menu."

But was he really perfecting his Nutella to toast ratio? Or were there perhaps rumblings of displeasure from the big guns at Nutella over the blatant trademark infringement? One thing's for sure: the cafe is now called Nuteria, and the original Nutelleria sign is nowhere to be seen. It does, however, serve the same menu originally promised of waffles, crepes, toast, and various pastries slathered with spread, plus Nutella hot chocolate or even just a straight up spoonful of the stuff for the rather inflated price of $1. Nuteria, 82 5th Avenue, Park Slope
